The Department of Finance in Sri Lanka today announced that the Government will increase the price of petrol and diesel by 13 paise and 32 paise a litre respectively. Diesel, petrol prices revised Fuel price increase effective from Oct 1, 2017. pic.twitter.com/dQmfPXOEPp — Department of Finance (@FinMinSL) July 10, 2017 Deputy Minister of Finance Harin Fernando said that the prices of petrol and diesel were increased after careful consideration. "After getting the demand estimates and the prevailing prices, we have revised petrol and diesel prices by changing our estimates from last year." Fernando told The Island. Motorists, however, were not happy with the increase. "It's very disappointing. I bought petrol for 20 rupees and diesel for 39 rupees last year. Now, the rates are 28 rupees for petrol and 52 rupees for diesel. The difference is almost 30 rupees. It will be difficult for us to adapt," said a car driver. Petrol today costs 10.54 rupees in Colombo and 10.03 rupees in Kandy. The rate of diesel also stands at 9.25 rupees in Colombo and 9.05 rupees in Kandy. Deputy Minister Fernando further said that there was a possibility of increasing fuel prices further. He added that the government would get the demand estimates for petrol and diesel for the upcoming month and would look into this matter.
